

Public Speaking Extra Credit

1. Read, highlight, and annotate the article provided from the Harvard Business Review.
2. Go to TED.com. Choose a speech that interests you.
3. Listen to the speech.
4. Make a list of techniques that the article references and the speaker uses.
5. Which of those techniques will you try to incorporate into your future speeches?
6. Be sure to include your name and the title of the speech you chose.

Please type and label your responses. Make sure that they are written well and proofread.

The number of points rewarded will be based on the completeness, thoughtfulness, and accuracy of the response.

You may earn up to 25 points.

Public Speaking Extra Credit

1. Read, highlight, and annotate the article provided from the Harvard Business Review.
2. Go to TED.com. Choose a speech that interests you.
3. Listen to the speech.
4. Make a list of techniques that the article references and the speaker uses.
5. Which of those techniques will you try to incorporate into your future speeches?
6. Be sure to include your name and the title of the speech you chose.

Please type and label your responses. Make sure that they are written well and proofread.

The number of points rewarded will be based on the completeness, thoughtfulness, and accuracy of the response.

You may earn up to 25 points.